

Utility Optimization

Who should explore utility?

Company owners who:

- Wish to reduce or identify non-direct process cost.
- Have utility capacity issues.
- Do not have experience or expertise in dealing with utilities mechanical utility optimization.
- Outsource other non-core business systems.

Design-build contractors who:

- Want an alternative to the utility company bringing electrical service to their building.
- Want an experienced interface with the utilities.

Services targeted with design and build option

- Energy audits
- Utility contract and billing review
- Review of proposed utility service design
- Utility service design or redesign
- Converting internal services to an outsourced Utility